CHAMPAGNE & SPARKLING WINE

Champagne is actually made from only three grape varieties, Chardonnay, Pinot Noir (pee-no n'wahr) and Pinot Meunier (pee-no mon-yer). Champagne is a place/a region in France; hence sparkling wine from any other region cannot be called Champagne. The name Champagne can only be used to refer to wine produced in Champagne region of France.

RIESLING

Riesling is often a confusing grape variety. It can be made sweet, though generally it will be very dry and clean finishing. It is the king of German wines and was originally planted there. The most popular flavors in riesling are green apple and citrus. Riesling also has a great home in Alsace in France on the German border which produces amazing wines perfectly paired with salads and lighter meat dishes.

BLENDED AND OTHER VARIETALS

Wine is blended from different grapes in order to add more complexity to the flavor and texture of a wine. The goal of blending wine is more to balance out the flavor characteristics. Alternative blends are created in an attempt to produce a new and exciting wine. Popular varietals such as Semillon, Pinot Grigio & Chenin Blanc can either be blended or enjoyed as a single varietal wine.

RED WINE

PINOT NOIR

Pinot Noir is the most elegant of all red wine with a lighter color and softer tannins although very difficult to grow grape variety. The reputation that gets pinot noir so much attention is owed to the wines of burgundy. Great pinot noir creates a lasting impression on the palate and in the memory. It is usually full bodied and rich but not heavy, high in alcohol, yet neither acidic nor tannic, most appealing quality may be its soft velvety texture like liquid silk. The best food matches are grilled salmon, roast beef or any dish with mushroom.

CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Cabernet Sauvignon often referred to as the "king of red wine grapes, originally from bordeaux. Cabernet sauvignon grapes tend to favor warmer climates and are often an ideal wine for aging, with 5-10 years being optimal for the maturation process to peak because cabernets take a bit longer to reach maturation. This allows their flavors to mellow, creating a softer finish. Cabernet sauvignon goes well with red meats, flavorful and heartier pastas, lamb, strong flavored cheese and dark chocolates.

MERLOT

Merlot is a red wine grape that is used as both a blending grape and for varietal wines. Merlot-based wines usually have medium body with hints of berry, plum, and black currant. It's softness and fleshiness, combined with its earlier ripening, makes Merlot a popular grape for blending with the sterner later-ripening Cabernet Sauvignon, which tends to be higher in tannin.

Pasqua Merlot Trevenezie Doc, Abruzzo, Italy, 2023	8200
Ita Mannara Merlot, Sicily, Italy, N/V	8000

SHIRAZ

Shiraz or Syrah is known for its spicy blackberry, plum and peppery flavors. Often there are additional notes of licorice, bitter chocolate and mocha. Shiraz is affected by the growing temperature- warmer climates bring out the mellower flavors of plum, while cooler temperatures spice up the wine. Shiraz can be made in a fruity style. which many "sweet" wine drinkers enjoy. It can also be made in a dry style. Wines made from shiraz grapes are often powerfully flavored and full bodied.
